¹189B Initial duty owed to all eligible persons who are homeless

- (1) This section applies where the local housing authority are satisfied that an applicant is—
 - (a) homeless, and
 - (b) eligible for assistance.
- (2) Unless the authority refer the application to another local housing authority in England (see section 198(A1)), the authority must take reasonable steps to help the applicant to secure that suitable accommodation becomes available for the applicant's occupation for at least—
 - (a) 6 months, or
 - (b) such longer period not exceeding 12 months as may be prescribed.
- (3) In deciding what steps they are to take, the authority must have regard to their assessment of the applicant's case under section 189A.

- (6) The notice must—
- specify which of the circumstances apply, and
 - inform the applicant that the applicant has a right to request a review of the authority's decision to bring the duty under subsection (2) to an end and of the time within which such a request must be made.
- (7) The circumstances are that the authority are satisfied that—
- the applicant has—
 - suitable accommodation available for occupation, and
 - a reasonable prospect of having suitable accommodation available for occupation for at least 6 months, or such longer period not exceeding 12 months as may be prescribed, from the date of the notice,
 - the authority have complied with the duty under subsection (2) and the period of 56 days beginning with the day that the authority are first satisfied as mentioned in subsection (1) has ended (whether or not the applicant has secured accommodation),
 - the applicant has refused an offer of suitable accommodation and, on the date of refusal, there was a reasonable prospect that suitable accommodation would be available for occupation by the applicant for at least 6 months or such longer period not exceeding 12 months as may be prescribed,
 - the applicant has become homeless intentionally from any accommodation that has been made available to the applicant as a result of the authority's exercise of their functions under subsection (2),
 - the applicant is no longer eligible for assistance, or
 - the applicant has withdrawn the application mentioned in section 183(1).
- (8) A notice under this section must be given in writing and, if not received by the applicant, is to be treated as having been given to the applicant if it is made available at the authority's office for a reasonable period for collection by or on behalf of the applicant.
- (9) The duty under subsection (2) can also be brought to an end under—
- section 193A (consequences of refusal of final accommodation offer or final Part 6 offer at the initial relief stage), or
 - sections 193B and 193C (notices in cases of applicant's deliberate and unreasonable refusal to co-operate).]

F1 189A Assessments and personalised plan

- (1) If the local housing authority are satisfied that an applicant is—
- homeless or threatened with homelessness, and
 - eligible for assistance,
- the authority must make an assessment of the applicant's case.
- (2) The authority's assessment of the applicant's case must include an assessment of—
- the circumstances that caused the applicant to become homeless or threatened with homelessness,
 - the housing needs of the applicant including, in particular, what accommodation would be suitable for the applicant and any persons with whom the applicant resides or might reasonably be expected to reside ("other relevant persons"), and
 - what support would be necessary for the applicant and any other relevant persons to be able to have and retain suitable accommodation.
- (3) The authority must notify the applicant, in writing, of the assessment that the authority make.
- (4) After the assessment has been made, the authority must try to agree with the applicant—
