To whom it may concern,

I am writing to complain that I am being made to clean the toilet floor by allo ,a staff member. As this is the third iteration of this recurring incident,and I am fed up with it; I would really ask someone else to clean or clean the toile t floor himself as that is his duty.

I always clean up after myself,so do the residents. However, people still wee all over the floor.I do not have to clean the floor.Allo should stop prompting me. I have explained this to him that it is not only me using it and that people who use it and dont clean it are more likely for others to add to it.I dont want to clean other mess.

I am deeply saddened by this as he did not listen which is why I am escalating this to those above.

Yours faithfully,Nnamdi Michael Okpala.
